Greetings and hugs from your servant Victor Manuel Salgado Jiménez. For me, it is a great satisfaction to be able to send you this email and solicit the diploma from the “Does Hell Exist?” course and at the same time thank you for this noble ministry that helps so many of us who are interested in knowing what the Bible says in respect to various topics. God bless every one of you in all aspects of your life.

- Your friend and brother Victor

Years ago, the song “I Will Do Anything for Love” was made famous by the group Meatloaf. The next line or subtitle of the song is “but I won’t do that.” As I thought about these few words that will likely be stuck in our minds for at least a few minutes, I couldn’t help but think about how God’s love for us has no limits. God didn’t say He would do anything for love. He did EVERYTHING for love. What a concept! As Christians, our job is to mirror the love God has given us and bring it to the world who so desperately needs it. Are we willing to do anything and everything for love? I hope so!

I’m so grateful to work in a ministry supported by so many people who sacrifice on a regular basis in the name of the love, the love of a God that is unmatched. May He continue to bless us all with courage and grace as we share His love with those in the Spanish speaking world. May the success we see in this ministry give us courage and motivation to reach those in our local communities as well!

Oh Happy Day!

After three years of studying with this wonderful couple, they decided (on the same night) to obey the gospel and put Christ on in baptism. There have been tears of joy at the addition of these souls to the kingdom of God. For the last year and a half, they have been instrumental in helping our local Hispanic outreach and we praise God for their decision! Please be praying for them as we will begin to depend on them as local workers for the Lord. Their son Gilberto was baptized earlier last year and they also have a daughter (Ximena) who is 11. May God be glorified as His church continues to grow!
